

CELEBRATING THE 30TH ANIVERSARY OF ANNALI DI STORIA DELL' ESEGESI

“Annali di Storia dell’Esegesi” (ASE) is a semestral journal devoted to the history of Christianity and the interpretation of the Bible, with Editorial Boards in Europe and North America. Since its founding in 1984, the journal has established itself as a point of reference for religious studies, reflecting a wide range of interdisciplinary approaches and perspectives.

EUROPEAN EDITORIAL BOARD

Mauro Pesce, Founder and Director, Università di Bologna
Adriana Destro, Università di Bologna
Alfredo Damanti, Università di Bologna
Cristiana Facchini, Università di Bologna
Edmondo Lupieri, Loyola University, Chicago
Umberto Mazzone, Università di Bologna
Enrico Norelli, Université de Genève
Mara Rescio, Université de Genève

NORTH AMERICAN EDITORIAL BOARD

Edmondo F. Lupieri, Chair, Loyola University Chicago
Michael A. Daise, College of William and Mary
Pierluigi Piovaneli, University of Ottawa
Brian Dennert, Secretary, Loyola University Chicago

For more information, contact:

Edmondo Lupieri at elupier@luc.edu /773-508-2363

Website: <http://www.cisec.unibo.it/CISEC/Pubblicazioni/ase.htm>

ALMA MATER STUDIORUM
UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

